FROM THE WEST.

[From the Virginia Enterprise.]

San Francisco, February 8.

Gold closed in New York on Saturday evening at 136½. Sterling, Friday evening, was 108½ @ 108¾, drooping. Legal tenders are quiet at 73½, buying, and 74 selling.

The following letter is authentic and is based on official information to the Consulate of the Republic of Mexico at San Francisco:

San Francisco, January 29, 1867.

My object in addressing you this note is to inform you of the victories recently won by the Mexican National troops over the French and Mexican traitors, the consequence of which is that the very important States of Jalisco, San Luis Potosi, Guanajuata, Zacatecas and Agua Calientes have all returned to the allegiance of the Republican Government, and that the foreign invaders are reduced to the cities and villages on the military road from the City of Mexico to the seaport of Vera Cruz.

Under date of the 12th instant, President Juarez gives me notice of the arrest of Generals Gonzales Ortega and Patoni, by order of the Governor of the State of Zacatecas—General Auza. Both prisoners had been sent to headquarters under a good escort. The arrest of the principal leader of the faction which had sprung up in the Liberal party will greatly facilitate the complete and final victory of the cause of Mexican liberty and independence.

President Juarez also informs me that the Executive was to leave Durango on the 14th instant for Zacatecas, at which place great preparations were being made for a public reception. The Governor would only remain a few days, and then proceed to San Luis Potosi or Guanajuata, as deemed most proper.

It is anticipated that the Executive will be installed in the Capital in the course of next March. Well aware of the strong sympathy you possess for the Republican cause of Mexico, I thought to bring these important events to your knowledge, and doubt not they will be read with interest.

For that reason I present to you the assurance of my most distinguished esteem and consideration.

(Signed) JOSE A. GODOY.

To His Excellency Frederick F. Low, Governor of California, Sacramento; and General Irwin McDowell, Chief Commander of the Department of California, San Francisco.

The certificate of incorporation of the Gulf of California Steam Navigation Company was filed with the County Clerk yesterday. The company proposes to navigate the Gulf of California with steamboats, and to convey passengers and freight between Guaymas, Muyleje and the anchorage at and about Punta Santa Ines. The capital stock is $240,000. Trustees—J. H. O'Brien, A. Lamott, H. T. Wm. Corcoran.

John Molloy applied to Judge Hoffman for the release of his son from the United States army on a writ of habeas corpus. It transpired during the argument of the motion that Molloy, Jr., took out his own writ of habeas corpus, having made his escape, with some nine others, from the Presidio.

Judge Cowles yesterday ordered the commitment to issue in the case of Peter D. Hedley, the defaulting Gold Hill agent of Wells, Fargo & Co., so that he will be taken to the State Prison without further delay.

Daniel T. Sullivan has resigned the place of U. S. Commissioner, and John O. Wheeler, formerly Clerk of the U. S. District Court for the Southern District of California, has been appointed in his place.

The Pacific and China Mail Steamship Co. advertises the steamship Herman to sail on March 1st for Yokohama, with passengers, mails and freight. The Colorado will follow April 3d.

The British ship Schap Jehan, while leaving port on Sunday afternoon, got on the rocks inside of Point Lobos, near Mile Rock, and will probably prove a total loss.

The steamer Moses Taylor, with passengers from New York, via Nicaragua, January 10, arrived last evening.

PARRACIDE.—We are compelled to relate one of the most lamentable occurrences that has ever transpired in this vicinity; that of the death of a father by the hand of his son. Wm. Litell is the owner of the second farm in the valley above Boise City; also a bridge and ferry across the Boise near the mouth of Moore's creek. Some time last summer or fall, his father, Thos. Litell, and a younger brother, Ezeikel, came from Oregon to live with William. Ezeikel has for a long time been subject to mental aberration, and it is said was taken from the asylum at Portland by his friends, when he was brought to Boise, though it appears he was by no means cured. He had several times threatened to take his father's life; and the old man had been warned as late as last Friday or Saturday to beware of Ezekiel, that he might do him harm. Early last Sunday morning Wilson, living about two hundred yards from Litell's, saw Ezeikel leave the house and go towards the river. Soon after a little Indian boy, six or seven years old, who was living at Litell's, came over to Wilson's and said "old man sick," "old man dead." Mr. Wilson went over immediately and found the old man in the house with a gash in his head, made with some instrument like the head of an axe, and nearly dead. There was no one about the house, William being absent from home at the bridge at Moore's creek. Mr. Wilson gave the alarm, and search was made for Ezeikel. Deputy Sheriff Thompson took the direction he was seen to go and soon found him on an island in the Boise river, without hat or coat. He had waded across to the island, built a fire and was drying his clothes. He was taken to jail. When taken into the room where the old man lay he took no notice of him whatever, and would not hold any conversation about him. He pretends, at least, not to know how his father came to his death. There is but one conclusion: that he killed him by a blow on the head with an axe, which was found standing in the room near where the body lay. Such was the verdict of the coroner's jury. Drs. Mineer and Price were called, who testified that the blow upon the head and the fracture of the skull caused Mr. Litell's death. Officers Conway and Thompson were prompt in the discharge of their duties. We visited Ezeikel in his cell last night, in company with Sheriff Duvall, and conclude, from his appearance and conversation, that he is partially insane.—Idaho Statesman, February 9th.

AT a fair in New Bedford, last week, a silver pitcher and salver were to be awarded to the most popular physician. Mrs. Dr. Helen W. Webster got the most votes and therefore

Is it Another Big Fish Story?

Utah to be Attached to Nevada.

For some days there has been a rumor current on the streets, that there was a project on foot looking to the annexation of Utah to the State of Nevada. Just where the project originated, whether here, in Washington, or in Carson, Dame Rumor was not very specific. But on Sunday afternoon last, we enjoyed the exalted privilege of visiting the Tabernacle, and hearing Brigham Young discourse to the multitude. Among other things he informed the audience that somebody at Carson City had telegraphed (or written) to Heber C. Kimball, that it was necessary to send money to that place to defeat a resolution in the Nevada Legislature, asking Congress to annex Utah to Nevada. Now, whether some one of the special Agents of the Church in that region was getting short of funds and sent this message to replenish his exhausted treasury, or whether there's substance in the thing, we don't know. But Brigham not only told the faithful that he did not send any funds for the purpose of defeating the measure, but expressed his entire satisfaction with the project; on one condition, however. For be it known, Brigham is a Prince of the blood Royal, an authority in the land, and has a pretty good right to attach conditions to any project, either of Nevada or Congress, which has a bearing on Utah affairs. The condition, then, which the Lion imposes is, that the new State to be formed by the junction of Utah and Nevada, shall be called the "State of Deseret."

It has before been explained to our readers that there is already a State of Deseret in full operation, with Governor, Legislature, and other State officers, so that it is sovereignty parleying with sovereignty. The slight claim which the United States has to, or authority over the so-called Territory of Utah, is a mere bagatelle. The Federal officers are permitted to exercise their several functions (which, by the way, are very like the historical fifth wheel to a coach,) so "long as they behave themselves." Hence Gov. Young very consistently insists on treating with Nevada on this subject, by himself.

Now Brigham's idea, as expressed by himself, is, that if Utah is incorporated into Nevada, or Nevada incorporated into Utah, or the two "sovereignties" united, it will be very much such an incorporation as Jonah made of the whale. For, although the modern the truth of history compels the belief that the whale "took in" Jonah. In other words, Brigham thinks that Utah can out vote Nevada, and that Gov. Young decidedly ranks Gov. Blasdel.

According to our view there is something in this suggestion. The population of Nevada is estimated, we believe, at about 30,000; that of Utah is claimed to be upwards of 100,000, and probably really is about 80,000. On the other hand there is a much larger proportionate voting population in Nevada than in Utah. In the first place, in Utah there are a great many more women and an infinite sight more babies than in our sister State. According to the census of 1860 the population of Utah was, males, 20,178; females, 19,947; total, 40,125. Nevada, males, 6,102; females, 710. To a great extent, the relative proportion of males and females has been maintained. The mass of the population of Nevada consists of qualified voters. Of the males in Utah, a vast majority are foreigners and comparatively few have been legally naturalized. We doubt if there are three thousand legal voters in this Territory, possibly not over two thousand. But it would not take a great while to make the balance voters, so far as naturalization is concerned, as most of them have perhaps taken out their first papers and have resided in the United States five years. That they are of good moral character and devoted to the Constitution and laws of the United States cannot be questioned—in Utah.

We do not recollect how many votes Nevada cast at the last general election. Will not some of our contemporaries over there please inform us? Before the Nevada Legislature, therefore, passes that engulphing resolution, they had better take Brigham's suggestion into consideration, for it won't do for Jonah to repeat that experiment of swallowing the whale. It would be a sorry thing for the Nevadans to wake up some fine sunshiny morning and find themselves absorbed in "the Church."

If there was any way by which Utah could be attached to our neighbor as a Territory of that sovereignty, perhaps we wouldn't object very seriously, as it would bring us a little nearer to the parent government than Washington City seems to be. In fact, Washington is a long way off, and just now the sages, who are supposed to watch over our interests, are too busy with politics, reconstruction, impeachment, &c., to pay much or any attention to the requirements of this Territory. But as we are not statesman enough to devise any scheme whereby our neighbors in Nevada may be enabled to assume jurisdiction over Zion without running the risk of Zion obtaining jurisdiction over Nevada, we bid them to turn the matter over in their minds before hazarding the experiment.

ASSAY OF REVEILLE ORE.—Boalt & Stetefeldt yesterday made an assay of pulp obtained from ore of the Reveille District, which gave a yield of $143 of silver per ton. The ore was taken from the mammoth Crescent ledge, and the 1,500 pounds hauled into town is being reduced at the Manhattan mill. It will be regarded as a handsome test, and the skill of the assayers is a guarantee of its absolute accuracy.—Reese River Reveille, February 6.

New York, February 11.

Government securities are without decided change.

The Bank statement shows a decrease in loans of $2,000,000; decrease in specie, $175,000; ditto circulation, $218,000; ditto deposits, $1,969,000.

There is a good business doing in the dry goods market; cotton goods, on orders, but a moderate demand. The week opens lower, with promising indications of active trade.

Washington, February 11.

House—A large number of bills and resolutions were introduced, including the following: By Delano, to declare the ratification of the 14th Article of the Constitution of the United States, proposed by first session 39th Congress; referred to the Judiciary Committee. Julian, providing for the government of Utah; referred to Committee on Territories. Higby, instructing the Committee on Claims to ascertain whether the Claim Commission, of the War Department, now in session, is making allowances for war claims without authority of law; adopted. McClure, declaring that Government should be actuated, in the prosecution of its claims against Great Britain for the depredations of the Alabama and other rebel cruisers, by some such emphasis as that which characterized the government of Great Britain in its demand arising out of the capture of Mason and Slidell from the Trent; adopted.

New York, February 11.

Sanford Conover, the detective who fabricated testimony complicating Jeff. Davis with the Lincoln assassination, has been found guilty of perjury.

The Post's special says Bingham will submit a new reconstruction proposition, providing that when the States lately in rebellion adopt the Constitutional Amendment and agree to suffrage, they shall be admitted to Congress. Until they do this, they shall be under martial law. To let in this proposition the House must vote down the motion to recommit. Bingham thinks the House will pass the bill.

New York, February 12.

A Tribune Matamoras special, of the 7th inst., says that Miramon took the City of Zacateras, with 2,000 prisoners, and Juarez, who was stopping there, had to leave in a hurry, taking the road to Chihuahua. A specie train of $800,000, which left Zacateras a little before Juarez, will probably fall into the hands of the Imperialists.

It is reported that the Liberals, 14,000 strong, have been defeated by 9,000 Imperialists between San Luis and Queretaro.

The Times' special says it is now stated on good authority that the President has become ready to co-operate with Congress in measures to avoid so extreme a resort as that proposed in the military government bill, and that there would be no difficulty in securing his assent to a bill based on the leading principles of the Constitutional Amendment, and at the same time providing for the more vigorous and effectual protection of personal rights and liberties in the Southern States.

Another Times' special says the delay in North Carolina to act on the Reconstruction proposition lately made by leading Southern men, is looked upon in Congress as ominous, as that State was expected to lead the way in its adoption.

loan certificates, payable on demand and made legal tender for the purpose of bank reserves, will be authorized. The power to withdraw greenbacks, not to exceed $4,000,000, will not be taken from the Secretary of the Treasury, but he will be directed to suspend action until the compound interest notes shall have been disposed of, and the money market is easy.

The friends of the Bankrupt bill are of the opinion that it will now pass, and they propose to try it.

The Tribune's special says that Stevens intends calling up his Confiscation bill this week.

It is doubtful whether the Loan bill will be reported to the Senate, although Secretary McCulloch is very anxious for a speedy report.

It is understood that General Grant expresses surprise at the statement that he approves of the Military Government bill. He deems the bill unwise, as its provisions would probably bring him in conflict with the Chief Executive, his immediate Constitutional superior. He also expresses his conviction that some bill reorganizing civil government in the South, with military to protect and aid, should be enacted at the earliest moment.

Boston, February 11.

The lower portions of the city were flooded by a great fall of rain on Saturday. Church, Fayette and other streets were flooded to the depth of two or three feet, causing considerable damage. In East Boston and Cambridge building were blown down and unroofed.

Galveston, February 11.

Dates from the Rio Grande to the 7th, and from the City of Mexico to the 2d inst., have been received.

Ortega and Patoni had been sent to Monterey, where a court martial will be convened for their trial.

While rejoicings in honor of Juarez were going on in Zacatecas, Miramon suddenly appeared with 2,000 troops, whereupon Juarez evacuated the city, Miramon taking possession, and directly after starting off in pursuit of the Liberals.

There seems to be much vacillation among the Liberal leaders. The Imperialists have resumed the offensive, and it is considered certain that San Luis Potosi will fall into their hands.

There are reports that the Imperialists captured Juarez and a specie train of $750,000.

The Imperialists are conscripting men and seizing horses everywhere.

A French frigate had arrived at Brazos, with a number of Liberal prisoners to be exchanged for French and Austrian prisoners at Matamoras.

RATE OF TAXATION.—The rate of taxation, says the San Francisco Call, in gold, upon each man, woman and child, for national purposes, is as below:

United States, $11 46; Great Britain, $10 92; France, $7 91; Belgium, $5 59; Prussia, $5 43; Austria, $5 27; Holland, 67 cents.

From the figures, supplied by the Commissioner of the Internal Revenues, it will be seen that the people of the United States are taxed heavier than those of any other nation in existence. But the figures given do not show the full amount of taxation to which we are subjected. Our taxes, direct and indirect, for State, City, and County purposes, are, in the aggregate, about as much as those for national purposes, so that in the aggregate, the people are taxed full $22 50 per head, annually. Divided up among the total population, the national debts, for each individual, are as follows:

United States, $74 28; Great Britain, $125 00; France, $52 00; Belgium, $26 00; Prussia, $12 00; Austria, $45 00; Holland, $121 00.

But here again the figures fail to show the proportion of the aggregate public debts owed by each individual of the United States. The aggregate of our State, City and County debts—which are as much a tax on the industry and energies of the people as is the National debt—is about equal to the total of the National debt. Therefore, in the United States, each individual's proportion of the public debt is full $148. With the industry of the Nation thus heavily burdened, and with projects on foot to increase the burdens, how can we expect our manufacturers to successfully compete with the manufacturers of those nations whose industry is, comparatively, untaxed? Next to the United States, Great Britain collects the largest revenue of any nation in the world; yet, in that country, the productive industry of the nation is not taxed directly, and scarcely indirectly. In the United States, the most enormous taxes are heaped, directly and indirectly, upon the productive industry of the country, as if the great object of national legislation is to crush out our domestic manufactures, and make paupers of the entire laboring population.

We are indebted, says the Grass Valley (Cal.) Union, to John K. Sale for the particulars of one of the best practical jokes we have heard of for a long time. It seems that T. Saxby, a whole-souled and clever gentleman, and proprietor of a livery stable in Nevada, got up a chicken-shooting affair and invited some of the crack shots of Nevada (including M. S. Deal, of the Transcript, and Steve Venard) to test their skill at shooting at a live rooster. The invitation was accepted, and on Thursday morning the parties, armed with rifles, etc., sallied out to Mulloy's shooting ground, and Saxby having arrived with a splendid Shanghae rooster, the ground was measured off, and, as the shootists thought, the chicken duly placed in position. But Saxby had taken out two chickens, one a real live rooster, the latter a rooster made of sheet iron and nicely decked with chicken feathers, comb, etc. This latter he put up in place of the real bird, and the deception was so perfect that the sportsmen took their positions and commenced blazing away at the rooster. The understanding was that ten cents was to be paid for each shot, and eighty shots being fired and Saxby having taken in eight dollars, he left the field, telling the boys that as he had taken in the value of the rooster they might now shoot at him free of charge. At this juncture Deal took his "posish" and fired thirty-six shots at the metallic bird, the thirty-sixth shot striking the ground in front of the chicken and loosening the earth so as to throw the chicken off its feet and on its side. Loud cheers were then given for Deal, who now began to make calculations on a big rooster for supper. But, alas! for the uncertainty of man's calculations! when he proceeded to pick up his game he found that Mr. Saxby had been "making game of the boys." It is said that Saxby has not been seen or heard of since.

MINING PROSPECT.—The prospects for the vigorous prosecution of mining in Aurora and vicinity have never looked more flattering. Mr. Martin arrived here several days since, en route to Silver Peak, and intends pushing the work on his mill and mine along as fast as the weather will permit. Mr. Livingston who arrived at the same time informs us that he is prepared to start up the Empire mines at Bodie, as soon as some slight alteration in the machinery of the mill is made they will commence crushing. We will here venture the assertion that there is not a better opened mine this side of the mountains. The ore is good, abundant and improves in richness as they sink on the ledge. Mr. J. D. Winters, of the Juniata, is here, as we have been informed, for the purpose of making arrangements for sinking a perpendicular shaft, as the present circuitous and inconvenient method of hoisting the ore would eat up the profits of an ordinary mine. The mine at present is looking remarkably well. Taking everything into consideration, there is a good prospect for lively times in Aurora as soon as the spring opens and the weather becomes settled.—Esmeralda Union, February 2d.

AN EPOCH.—To-day inaugurated a memorable epoch in mining development in this region. At 12 o'clock the ground on the western slope of Mount Prometheus was broken for a shaft which is to be sunk to the depth of 1,000 feet. It is the enterprise of Major Sherman, Superintendent of the New York and Austin Company, whose ardent faith and indomitable energy will certainly carry him into the bowels of the earth. At noon precisely the first pick was driven into the solid earth, and as the wine flowed copiously the work was named "The Sherman Shaft—1,000 feet deep." A half dozen picks rapidly broke the surface, while the band played "Stop dat Knocking." At the completion of the ceremony of breaking the ground, the party partook of a handsome collation, during which a number of toasts were proposed and speeches made. With three hearty cheers for the success of Sherman's shaft, the party left the ground.—Reese River Reveille, Feb. 9th.

A Pardon for Bradley T. Johnson.

Prior to the war Bradley T. Johnson was a politician of some prominence in Maryland. Failing in his efforts to revolutionize that State, he, early in 1861, crossed the Potomac with a band of followers and enlisted under the rebel standard. He rose from one position to another until a general's commission was conferred upon him. When, in September, 1863, General Lee started forth on his invasion, this Johnson was designated as the instrument for "freeing my Maryland." He accordingly marched in the vanguard of the advancing columns, and reaching Frederick upon that eventful Saturday morning, he was immediately made provost marshal of the place, and prepared to overthrow the State Government and substitute a rebel junta in its place. The programme had been previously arranged. General Lee issued an order from his headquarters, just out of the city, to the people of Maryland, announcing that he and his soldiers had come "to aid you in throwing off the foreign yoke and restore the independence and sovereignty of your State." This was immediately followed by a proclamation from Bradley T. Johnson, announcing himself as the Governor of the sovereign State of Maryland, and setting aside any or all other organizations claiming to exercise legitimate authority. Unfortunately, however, for the "Governor," the boys in blue had something to say about exchanging off Governor Bradford for him, and were so ungracious as to unceremoniously crowd him ont of the State. After the close of the war the Maryland authorities arrested Johnson, and attempted to try him for treason, but they were compelled to release him by the Washington authorities. This same Bradley T. Johnson having pocketed a pardon from the President, has now been admitted to the bar of the Supreme Court as a practitioner. This is the way in which treason is made odious. There was not the poor excuse for Johnson that his State had seceded, but he deliberately made war upon the General Government, and then attempted to overthrow and supercede the government of his State, and to drag its people into the Confederacy against their will.—New York Commercial.

A RELIGIOUS DEPARTMENT AT THE PARIS EXPOSITION.—One of the most interesting and important departments of the great Exposition, to be held at Paris the coming year, will be the one devoted to the exhibition of the results of Protestant Christian benevolent enterprise. The very choicest part of the grounds devoted to the Fair has been set apart by the French Emperor for this purpose, and it will furnish the grandest opportunity Protestant Christianity has ever had for the display of its works and results. It certainly could hardly have been expected that a Catholic Emperor, of a Catholic country, would have taken much interest in such a matter; but buildings are to be erected, and every possible facility afforded for the exposition of the results of the modern missionary and charitable efforts of Protestant Christians. It is the intention of the Emperor and those concerned in the Exposition, to have it a perfect illustration of the life of the world, and permission was cheerfully given to some English Christians when they broached the matter of having a place assigned to Protestant Missions. Partial preparations have already been made to render this permission of the Emperor of practical value to the cause of Protestant Christianity; but much more remains to be done in order to make full and proper use of so grand an opportunity for aggressive religious effort. A Protestant chapel will be erected on one end of the "Holy Ground"—as it will be appropriately called—and a committee of evangelical ministers has already been raised in Paris, who are to make arrangements for daily religious services, under the direction of able preachers, in all the languages that shall be represented there. The Gospel will thus be publicly and freely preached in English, French, German, Italian, and in any other language that they can understand. Another building will be devoted to the display of the results of Christian enterprise in the preparation of the Bible and other religious works for the use of heathen nations; another building will be devoted to the gratuitous distribution of religious books and tracts, and the printing press will at once attest to the skill of invention and the thoughtful foresight of Christian benevolence. Several English gentlemen of great wealth and Christian liberality have taken especial interest in this work, and are pushing it along with all the energy possible. —San Francisco Call, February 2d.

R. P. MOORE and Harry Binge left here last Friday evening, says the Downieville (Cal.) Advocate of February 2d, intending to go home to Excelsior Hill, and, after getting just above the Good Hope claims, Binge, who was somewhat the worse for liquor, having a bottle with him, showed signs of giving out, failing to keep pace with Moore. They were on snow shoes, and Binge every few minutes tumbling off from his, Moore would turn back to his assistance. After repeating this several times Moore became nearly exhausted breaking trail for Binge. They concluded to return to town, and, after traveling on the back track about two hundred yards, Moore was taken with an epileptic fit, to which he was subject, and, as he stated previous to his death, was unable to go further and became unconscious. The result was that he laid out in the snow until the next day. As to what Binge did through the the night he was so drunk that he could give no account of himself; but he came to town in the morning, having on but one boot, and after getting breakfast in some out-of-the-way place, reported that he had left Moore in the snow. A party immediately started out and found Moore insensible and perfectly powerless. He was brought to town, and, after applying remedies for several hours, he was restored to consciousness, when he related everything that transpired until he fell in a fit. The exposure of the terrible night, however, was too great, and at 11 o'clock that night the spirit of the poor sufferer went forth to him who gave it.

UNIFORM OF MILITARY BANDS.—General Orders No. 5, from the War Department, dated January 23d, are as follows:

The fifteen bands authorized by section 7 of the act approved July 28, 1866, the stations of which are designated in General Orders No. 87, of October 22, 1866, from this office, will be uniformed as follows:

Those at West Point, Fort Columbus, New York harbor, Richmond, Va., Charleston, S. C., Louisville, Ky., Nashville, Tenn., Jefferson Barrack, Mo., Little Rock, Ark., New Orleans, La., and harbor of San Francisco, Cal., in the prescribed dress for infantry. Those at Fort Leavenworth, Kan., San Antonio, Texas, and Fort Vancouver, W. T., in the prescribed dress for cavalry. Those at Fort Adams, R. I., and Fort Monroe, Va., in the prescribed dress for artillery.

JOHN RICHARD HOBSON was arrested in San Francisco, February 4th, on the charge of procuring money by false pretences—under the pretense of having a revelation from God enabling him to transform the baser metals into gold for the purpose of purchasing Palestine and restoring the Jews to their ancient dominion. He succeeded in swindling four merchants—Morris, Lipman, Myers and Falk—out of nearly $10,000. He had erected a laboratory at Bernal Hights, and surprised his dupes when they saw the operation performed and copper turned into gold before their eyes. The details are exceedingly rich.

Daily Union Reveille

Local and Miscellaneous.

ADVERTISERS.—The VEDETTE is the pioneer newspaper of Utah. Its extensive circulation in mining camp and city of Montana and Idaho, (by which it gives the telegraphic despatches a whole week ahead of the Pacific papers,) makes it the most prosperous medium for advertising in these four Territories.

THE 13TH WARD.—Last night we visited the Assembly Rooms of this Ward to witness the regular dance. There must have been near two hundred present, as we counted fifteen sets on the floor at one time, making one hundred and thirty, while there were nearly twice that many anxious ones awaiting their turn to dance. We don't know how the Bishops of the other Wards entertain their flocks for innocent amusement during the winter months; but we have on several occasions attended the gathering together of the inhabitants of this Ward, and will give the managers of them credit for the manner in which they have been conducted. We never saw little folks enjoy themselves to such an extent as they did last night.

WRITING SCHOOL.—Our citizens by this time should know that we have a writing school in the city, where writing and book-keeping are taught. It is worth any one's time to pay the institution a visit, and notice the way in which Messrs. McCauley & Morgan teach their pupils. "One, two, three—slide; one, two, three, four, five—slide." We flatter ourselves that we lay over Mr. McCauley in sliding on the ice; but we acknowledge his superiority in writing.

THE TERRITORIAL ENTERPRISE.—On the 7th inst. this paper commenced its fourteenth year. With the exception of the Deseret News, the Enterprise is the oldest journal published between the Rocky and Sierra Nevada mountains. Its first issue was in 1858, and consequently it is in its ninth year. It has always been a welcome exchange with us, and to Mr. Goodman all the prosperity and fortune good men are entitled to. We don't intend this as a pun.

TO RENT.—Small house to let on Emigration street. See advertisement. fe4-tf

FROM THE WEST.

[From the Virginia Enterprise.]

San Francisco, February 6.

Breadstuffs are moderately active at 73c., 73½c. and 74c., selling. Private telegrams this morning quote gold in New York steady and sterling dull at 108½@108¾. The favorable showing of the National debt for January is attributed as a reason for the above slight advance in the gold premium and the general depression in sterling bills.

A private letter from Hon. John Conness, received here on Saturday last, states that all the appointments in the regular army accredited to the Pacific Coast have been made. There five gentlemen commissioned who have not been mentioned heretofore. Among them is Harlow Street, of Tuolumne county, as an officer of the Second California regiment. The others are at present unknown. Major Taylor brings the intelligence that there is no sickness on the Isthmus of Panama. Perfect health reigns all over the line. The reported cholera cases among the passengers of the America, whilst on the Isthmus, were positively caused by an intemperate use of fruits and reckless exposure; and, as we said, might have been only an aggravated case of tropical diarrhea.

Messrs. Dabovich, Andrew C. Matthison and Thomas L. Macomber have filed their petitions in bankruptcy. Dabovich is a fruit dealer and owes $4,000 by buying orchards, $3,000 in one year and $5,000 by partnership in Portland, Oregon. His liabilities amount to about $12,000, with no assets.

Messrs. Beaus and Timothy Riley were committed to Stockton on Monday afternoon. The insanity originated from a blow on the head and the use of intoxicating liquors. He is a native of Pennsylvania and forty-five years of age.

Messrs. McKay and Stephen Coffin were arrested on Monday, charged with grand larceny, in stealing $1,000 from Captain Niles, of the wrecked ship Schah Jehan. The former made a full confession of the theft. Most of the money was recovered by the detectives. The Chinese merchants and tax payers of Chinatown have drafted a petition, which is being rapidly signed, asking the Board of Education to reopen the Chinese evening schools. They say that they pay school taxes, and are therefore entitled to school privileges. A meeting of school teachers was held at the Lick Hall, Monday evening, to take action relative to the proposed reduction of their salaries. After considerable discussion, a committee was appointed to present the views of the teachers to the Board of Education.

The ship Schah Jehan, which was ashore at the rocks near Point Lobos, went to pieces on the beach during Monday night. The destruction was so complete that the wreck had entirely disappeared from sight on Tuesday.

"Judge" MURPHY.—It is with pleasure that we are able to furnish the Democracy of the Territory this morning with the comforting assurance that Murphy will not be confirmed as Governor of this Territory. It is true that Murphy caused the President to send his name to the Senate, but that is as near the gubernatorial office as Murphy will ever get. This information will not only be a source of great joy to the other expectants, but to the well wishers and members of the party as well. We would like to see the Democrat who was pleased with the idea of having John M. Murphy for Governor, but rather inclined to hang their heads in shame at the thought that he had a chance. His nomination would be a humiliation to Union men, had not Andrew Johnson long since ceased to be recognized as members of the Union party. Statesman, Feb. 7th.

The Territorial Enterprise says: The Nevada bill has been signed by the Governor. It provides for the issue and sale of gold bonds to the aggregate amount of $500,000. The proceeds from the most of the Territorial and County indebtedness can be taken up. The bonds are made payable within five years, and carry the principal and interest (12 per cent. per annum) a tax of 70 cents is levied. The sum of $3,000 is appropriated to defray the expense of the disposal of the bonds in London.

The road to Ruby has been so bad for the past few weeks that it was impossible to go over the mountain from Babington's with any kind of vehicle. The consequence was we have no later mails from California until yesterday, the letter bags have been all the way packed over on men's backs. Last Monday and Tuesday they succeeded in breaking through and brought up all arrearages.—Idaho Statesman, February 7th.

Stages are every day starting from this place for Umatilla. Bilicke & Logan fitted out one yesterday, and others are in town preparing to go. The trade in that direction, it is said, promises to be brisk in a few days.—Idaho Statesman, February 7th.

INTERESTING CASE.—The father of a deceased officer of the Union army died before the passage of the act of July 14, 1862, granting pensions to the fathers of officers who died in the service of the country. The widow of the officer claimed and received a pension under the Act of July 14, 1862, and the Commissioner of Pensions rejected the application of the father on the ground that the Act of July 4, 1864, which granted pensions to the fathers of officers, repealed the previous laws. An independent mother be living at the time of the son's decease; and that, under the pension laws, the survivorship of a dependent mother is a bar to the claim for pension of any of the heirs of the officer; soldier or seaman, of whom the mother takes precedence. It is believed that the mother, having been pensioned by reason of the service and death of her son, on whom she was dependent for support, all right to a pension terminates with her death or remarriage, and does not vest in any other heir of the soldier.

Under this decision an appeal was taken to the Secretary of the Interior, who says: "Under the circumstances I am of the opinion that the father is not entitled to a pension, and your decision is accordingly confirmed."—Washington Chronicle.

THE UNION PACIFIC RAILWAY.—The Secretary of the Interior has received the report of the Government commissioners on the sixth section of the Union Pacific railway, Eastern Division, commencing at the 130th and terminating at the 155th mile station west from the initial point, near Kansas City. The commissioners, in their report, represent the section ready for present service, and supplied with all necessary drains, culverts, viaducts, crossings, sidings, bridges, turnouts, watering places, depots, equipments, furniture, and all other appurtenances of a first-class railroad, and recommend the acceptance of the same. The report was submitted by the Secretary of the Interior to the President of the United States, with the recommendation that the section be accepted, and the bonds and patents due the company on account of the same be issued; which recommendation received the approval and order of the President.—Washington Chronicle.

CRETIAN HEROISM.—An eye-witness of the revolutionary progress in the Island of Crete writing to a French paper, relates an interesting incident with reference to the storming and blowing up of the Monastery of Arkadion. He says that when the Greeks found resistance useless, a voice cried out: "Let us die for our faith and our country; let us imitate Missolonghi," and immediately thereafter Gabriel, the Abbot of the Monastery, fired off a revolver into the powder. The explosion took place at once, burying among the ruins Christians and Turks, laymen and priests, men, women and children. "Everybody perished," says the writer, "in that vast holocaust, and thus Arkadion imitated Missolonghi."

A TEACHER at a national school at Whittlesey, England, recently asked a boy which was the highest dignitary of the Church. After looking up and looking down, north, east, south and west, the boy innocently replied: "The weather cock."

PEACH TREES IN BLOSSOM.—The Stockton, California, Independent, of February 2d says: "In the garden of H. E. Hall, in the northern part of the city, peach trees are now in blossom."

MR. J. E. MAYNARD, of Boston, has sold the well known stallion Ethan Allen, to Mr. Z. E. Simmons, of New York. The price paid has not transpired, but it is understood to be upwards of $10,000.

NEW COUNTY SEAT.—A telegram from Carson yesterday announced that the Governor had approved the bill transferring the county seat of Nye county from Ione to Belmont. The bill provides that the transfer shall take place in May.—Reveille, February 7.

A COLORED man at Lansing, Michigan, has applied to the Supreme Court of the State for a mandamus to compel the admission of his children to a white public school.

A new method of catching whales has been tried with considerable success since the discovery to its discovery. Our readers are well aware of the deadly effects of the Indian poison called curare or woorali, concerning which we have often had occasion to record the most interesting experiments, especially in mentioning the attempts made to use it as a specific for lockjaw, its peculiar action consisting in relaxing the muscular system. Strychnine is a poison producing the contrary effect, the excessive contraction of the system, or in other words, tetanus or lockjaw. It is a curious fact that by the conjunction of these two agents so diametrically opposite in their effects, a poison is obtained that will kill almost instantly if only administered in the dose of half a milligr. per kilo. of the animal to be subjected to its action, provided its weight do not exceed ten kilos. If larger the dose must be proportionately increased.

Mr. Thiercelm, the inventor of this poison, composes it by mixing a satl of srtychnine with one twentieth of woorali. To apply it to a whale fishing he makes the compound up into cartrides of 30 gms. (an ounce) each, which is enough to kill an animal of 60.000 kilos. weight. Each cartridge is imbedded in the gunpowder contained in an explosive shell, which is fired off on the whale. In a late whaling voyage ten whales received such missiles, and all died within from four to eighteen minutes after the infliction of the wound. Out of these ten whales, six were cut up for their blubber and whalebone. The remains were handled by careless men, who frequently had scratches and sores on their skin, and yet not one of them suffered the slightest injury—a circumstance which shows that the poison cannot be transmitted from the fish to the men. Its poisonous action on the whale, is, hower, so great that practically the dose will have to be diminished, so that the death of the creature may not be sudden. We should not forget to state that two out of the ten whales above mentioned were lost by one of the many accidents incident to whaling, and that two others were of a kind that is not worth fishing for.

SHOOTING AFFRAY AT OROFINO GULCH. The Helena Herald, of January 31st, says: "We are pained to learn that on Wednesday morning, 30th inst., a shooting affray occurred near Professor Hodge's mill, on Orofino Gulch, about three miles from this city, which resulted in the severe wounding of our esteemed friend Prof. Hodge and his son, and the fatal wounding of a Mr. Moore.

"It seems that there had been some difficulty between the Professor and other parties with regard to the right to a quantity of wood which had been cut by a man named Small. At the time above stated, the former, accompanied by his son and others, being armed, went with teams to the place where the wood was piled, and expressed a determination to take it away at all hazards. Moore and Small forbid their taking the wood, and on Mr. Hodge raising a stick from the pile to load on to a wagon, they resisted his efforts—whereupon Mr. Hodge stepped back, cocking his gun. Simultaneously with this action of Mr. Hodge, Moore drew his revolver, when they both fired, it is believed at the same time. Moore received a charge of buck shot in the breast, in the region of the heart, and a ball in the groin—the wounds are supposed to be mortal. The Professor was shot also in the breast, but the ball, glancing, passed around his side. Although at last accounts, the ball had not been found, the wound was judged to be not fatal. Young Hodge was shot in the wrist,—how or by whom we have not learned—but understand that it will be necessary to amputate his hand.
